Camping Trailer Fabric

ABC Industries, Inc. is proud to be the leading supplier of bunk end camper fabric to the recreational vehicle industry. These specially engineered laminated fabrics are designed to withstand extreme weather conditions while meeting the demands of rigorous use. The durable two-ply construction with water-repellent backer provides enhanced cleanability and easy maintenance for the end user.

Coordinate your VRX-14™ fabric to the camper's exterior by taking advantage of ABC's custom color-matching capabilities, or choose from a host of currently available colors. Other applications for this fabric include boat canopies, equipment bags, grill covers, and more.
